Bay Colt, (May), by Curlin - Palace Rumor by Royal Anthem. Trainer Pletcher A. Todd. Bred by W. S. Farish(KY).

PALACE MALICE was skittish in the starting gate prior to the start, with the rider bailing out before the field was sent off and running, proceeded to come away with no apparent mishap and secured a forward post, sat perched in the three path by the end of the backstretch, just to the outside of the front runners, was put to some light hand urging and crept up towards them nearing midpoint, made a successful challenge a sixteenth down the road, turned for home holding a slim advantage and was set down, lengthened the margin during the run through the furlong grounds, was kept busy to the end, finishing under strong hand urging in the final seventy yards. APEX pressed the issue from the two path, doing so from between rivals from the midway point on the turn until the quarter pole once the winner made his presence, failed to keep pace with that opponent during the stretch run but continued onward willingly enough to secure second. HIGHTAIL bobbled slightly inward after losing his footing at the start, went on to take the front and was guided over to the rail, argued for command at first one on one with the runner up, had the eventual winner make it a threesome by the three-eighths pole, continued the battle until just beyond quarter pole before backing away. THANE was readjusted in the starting gate prior to the start, raced along the outside, was already under encouragement turning for home, lacked the necessary stretch response. FLYING BIRD quickly tucked along the inside, rode the rail until approaching the five-sixteenths pole, vacated the premises under urging, fanned four wide into upper stretch, made no headway on the front runners. COOLUSIVE bumped with GUNDERMAN at the start, was coaxed in the pocket while tracking the front runners, faltered. GUNDERMAN came in enough at the start to initiate contact with the nearest opponent, raced towards the two path, between rivals early on the turn, went around under some rousing, tired after entering the stretch.
