Distaffers will go a mile in today's Starter Allowance opener and it's tough to throw very many out here. WITH EXCELLENCE has been going good lately with a win and 2 seconds from her last 4 dirt starts and she gets the call today in a close contest. She'll settle off the leaders along the rail and try to run by them in the stretch run. ADMIRE is just a head away from winning 5 in a row on dirt and is the one to beat. She'll go to the front and try to stay there.

The top contenders are very close in this 6-furlong maiden test for 2-year-old fillies. WHOMPING WILLOW pressed the pace in her career debut before settling for the runner-up spot. This Mineshaft filly will benefit from the experience and should relish today's added ground. She shows a good recent work and looks to be ready to go today for trainer Dale Romans. WHITE PANTS NIGHT is a first timer by Speightstown that has been working well for her debut.

A compact but talented field has been drawn for this year's Kelly Landing Stakes and a case can be made for nearly everyone. GHOST IS CLEAR never fired after a troubled trip on Derby Day, but has bounced back with a win and a second and gets the call today in a tough race. This Ghostzapper has tactical speed and will look to take over at the head of the lane. GOOD LORD didn't fire in the Aristides, but is worth another look in this spot. He's the top contender.

The top two are very close in this 1-mile entry-level Allowance affair for fillies and mares. GAMAY NOIR broke her maiden in her Churchill Downs debut and came right back with a good effort in her first try vs. winners. She figures to be laying in the garden spot early on today and in position to make her run when the field turns for home. She can take over late and lead this group to the wire. FISCAL FITNESS returned from a layoff with a big effort and rates a look.

The top two are very close in this 6-furlong sprint for $10,000 maiden claimers, so don't accept a real short price on anyone here. MAYPARK has an unenviable 0 for 13 record, but he did wake up in his second start with blinkers on and finished a close second. He tackles similar foes today and will be running from just off the pace. STANLEY CUP flashed early speed vs. $20,000 maidens, but wasn't able to last. He drops down and is the one to catch today.

An overflow field has been drawn for this 1 1/16-mile turf Optional Claimer and a case can be made for about half the field. BELL BY THE RIDGE sports a 2-2-1 record from 5 starts this year and he was a close second vs. similar company last time. He returns at the same level today and can get the job done rallying from off the pace under Joe Rocco. Give him the call in a close contest. FILM MAKING didn't have the best of trips last time, but still finished well to be third.

The top 3 contenders in this 112th running of the Bashford Manor are coming off 3 different surfaces and that makes this a wide open affair. D'CAJUN CAT went off as the 9-5 choice in his career debut and made short work of his rivals, rallying from off the pace to win going away. He shows a couple of works since and gets the nod to repeat today stretching out to six furlongs. HOLLYWOOD TALENT has been off since winning back in April, but has shown he runs well fresh.

Under normal circumstances, I would never pick a runner like LEMANS that'd been claimed out of a decent race for a $30,000 tag that was immediately being dropped to $8,000. With the Ramseys, however, these are not normal circumstances. They're trying to set a record for wins and are willing to do whatever it takes to make that record unassailable and standard handicapping logic goes out the window. APPEALING IMAGE likes this track and is a threat.

Aside from losing by a head in last year's Stephen Foster, WISE DAN would be riding a 10-race winning streak. He's clearly the one to beat in this year's Firecracker even though he's giving 11 to 15 pounds to his opponents. He's worked nothing but bullets since winning the Woodford Reserve on Derby Day and he's 6 for 7 at today's 1-mile distance. Johnny V regains the mount for trainer Charlie LoPresti. LEA was impressive in his seasonal debut and rates a long look.

The top contenders are very close in this 7-furlong test for bottom-level claimers, so don't accept a real short price on anyone. SURF CAST and SIR JOCK finished right together in their last meeting and figure to be battling it out for the top spot here. The former overcame a poor start to win last time out and should be able to handle today's added ground. Edge in a close contest. SIR JOCK is a versatile sort that can show speed or be rated.

An overflow field has been drawn for today's maiden turf finale and it looks to be a wide open affair. ALLEGHENY ANGEL rallied from far back and just missed in her turf debut, then hooked two good fields on the dirt. She's back on the turf today and that's the surface she seems to like best. She'll be running late under Alan Garcia and rates a slight edge. SPECIAL GUEST has been off for a year, but is working well for her return and can't be counted out.
