CONDURRE clearly looks best on paper in today's opener, but you have to wonder why he's taking a 50% class drop coming off a win and second over this track. He might handle this bunch with ease, but I'll have to look elsewhere. START THE PARTY was in too tough last time out running for $50,000, but was a winner the last time he ran for a $15,000 tag and today's return to that level puts him in the thick of things. He'll rally from off the pace under Miguel Mena.

It's tough to throw very many out in this entry-level Optional Claimer, so don't accept a real short price on anyone. DANCIN' LIL is a lightly Fusaichi Pegasus filly that has improved with every start. She rallied from off the pace to win going away last time out and has a chance to repeat today if that trend continues. Today's added ground shouldn't be a problem and she gets the call in tough race. WOODFORD LADY should be legged up and has a shot.

A case can be made for over half the field in this very evenly matched Optional Claimer. GOODTIMEHADBYALL is on the upswing now for trainer Merrill Scherer and does his best running here as evidenced by 4 of his 5 career wins coming under the Twin Spires. This Quiet American gelding looks to be on top of his game now and was a game winner last out in a "two other than..." Allowance race. ASTROLOGY is the class of the field and has shown he runs well fresh.

A full field has been drawn for this Optional Claimer on the turf and the top contenders are very close here. DOS LUNAS disappointed as the 5-2 choice at Arlington Park last time out, but got both her wins here and today's return to Churchill may be just the tonic for her. She's got tactical speed and will be ready to make her run turning for home. RUN A RISK ran into trouble in the Edgewood and failed to threaten. She's worth another look today.

A compact but very talented group of 3-year-olds will battle in this year's Matt Winn and a case can be made for nearly everyone. NECK 'N NECK has really come on since adding blinkers and was an easy winner last time out when dropping back into an Allowance race. He'll step up in class today, but looks to be up to the challenge and gets the nod to repeat. He'll stalk likely pacesetter, RIGHT TO VOTE, and try to run by that one in the late stages.

A very well-matched group has been assembled for this year's Regret Stakes and the top contenders are hard to separate. CENTRE COURT has only a maiden win to her credit, but she has put up some big numbers on the turf and has never been worse than second in 3 tries. This Smart Strike filly will settle into a good spot early and will be ready to make her run turning for home. FUNNY PROPOSITION makes her turf debut, but is bred to like it and will be a factor early.

It's tough to throw very many out in this year's Fleur De Lis, so insist on a square price here. Normally don't like to take horses coming back from Dubai, but ROYAL DELTA has been working very well for her return and she did post a career-best "fig" in her lone start here. She'll settle into a good spot early and look to make her run turning for home. She can take over late and lead this group to the wire. ST. JOHN'S RIVER will be rolling late and is a threat.

A crackerjack field has been drawn for the Stephen Foster and trainer Charlie Lopresti has a solid 1-2 punch with the "Dan" duo. SUCCESSFUL DAN has reeled off 5 straight wins going back to 2010 and was an eye-opening winner on Oaks Day, rallying to win the Alysheba Stakes in track-record time. This 6-year-old has won 3 of 4 starts at Churchill and gets the call in a tough race. FORT LARNED is on top of his game and tries to turn the table on the top choice.

The top contenders are hard to separate in this 1 1/16-mile maiden contest. There's not a wealth of early speed present here and the one that gets to the front could well stay there. LOCKOUT comes off a couple of sprint tries and will be on or near the lead today going around two turns. He'll have the lead late and try to hold off the late runners at the wire. DRILL SERGEANT rallied from off the pace to be second in his debut and figures to benefit from the experience.

There is certainly no standout in this contest for $15,000 maiden winners and it would be tough to accept a short price on any of these. CHINCHILLA LADY finished an even second last time out when dropping to the $15,000 level. That was her first start over this track and she figures to move forward today. She'll track the leaders and try to run by them in the late stages. Edge in a close contest. DADS SHOOTING STAR will flash to the front and try to stay there.

Maiden turf races are usually widen open affairs and this 5-furlong sprint certainly seems to qualify. Insist on a square price before plunging on any of these. The pace of this race should be quick and the race sets up well for one with some tactical speed. GRAND AVENUE stumbled at the start and was last early in his debut, but finished well and just missed. He has a right to improve with a better start today. LOUD PIPES is a first timer that's bred to the turf - watch.
