Bay Filly, (Apr), by Grand Slam - Compete by El Prado (IRE). Trainer Motion Graham H.. Bred by Earle I. Mack(KY).

LADY DIGBY settled early while off the rail, advanced three wide between rivals nearing the quarter pole, responded to strong left handed urging in upper stretch, forged to command leaving the eighth pole and drew clear under solid right handed encouragement. ECLISSE (FR) opened up early, set the pace towards the inside, drifted out through the final furlong and gave way grudgingly. RUTHERIENNE, unhurried early while removed from the rail, moved closer three wide nearing the lane, advanced between rivals leaving the sixteenth pole and finished willingly. DANCING BAND settled inside, gained ground along the rail in upper stretch, lodged a bid in mid stretch then flattened out. J'RAY, unhurried early while off the inside, gained ground five wide entering the stretch then faded through the final furlong. ROYAL PLEASURE, fractious behind the gate, saved ground into the far turn, angled out near the three eighths pole, moved up some between rivals nearing the stretch then came up empty in the drive. HIGH MOMENT stalked the leader, gained ground leaving the far turn, remained a solid presence to the head of the lane then tired in the drive.
