Dark Bay or Brown Colt, (Mar), by Medaglia d'Oro - Dream Rush by Wild Rush. Trainer Wolfson D. Martin. Bred by Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC(KY).

ATREIDES jostled at the start, pulled and tracked the leaders, edged up along the outside, dueled with DUDEMAN, took over a furlong out and pulled away. DUDEMAN took the lead at the start, raced on top and pressured for the lead, challenged and dueled with eventual winner into the lane, could not match strides at the eighth pole and held place in final strides. URBAN COOL stalked the top three leaders, asked for more approaching the turn, continued a three wide bid in the final furlong and was a step to slow to capture place. BEST PLAN YET settled back in early stages, urged for position at the top of the lane, made up ground four wide but needed more to make serious impact. GENERAL SHAM'MAH raced in the back of the field, shifted around four wide heading into the lane and slightly improved position. QUIET RULER saved ground racing along the inside, was never in serious contention and vanned off after the race. TONY B pressed then vied for the lead, could not keep up pace in final furlong and gave way. SHIVA CURLIN raced along in range along the inside and had no response after the half.
