Dark Bay or Brown Mare, (Apr), by Lawyer Ron - First Song by Rahy. Trainer Brad H. Cox. Bred by Don Ameche III, Don Ameche Jr. &Prancing Horse Enterprises (KY).

CALL PAT void of speed, began to advance along the inside in the far turn, angled out three wide into the lane, steered out further to hit a seam past the three sixteenths marker, finished fast while drifting in slightly to be up in time. STREAMLINE forwardly placed, stoutly restrained in the run up the backstretch, continued to pull toward the inside second turn, asked for run turning for home, got through without issue, challenged the leader nearing the furlong marker, put a head in front late, caught in the waning strides. MESHELL away well, showed the way into the first turn, rated through some soft fractions, responded when challenged late in the final turn and through the stretch, proved courageous til the end. SARAH SIS within striking distance outside, four wide when in good position through the final turn, came up empty for the drive. CABANA pressured the leader off the inside, had little left for the drive. RIBBON OF DARKNESS five wide into the first turn, again into the far turn, faded in the drive. TOSHA TALIFERO settled off the pace, three wide much of the way, lacked response in the drive. PEARL TURN two path, three out to four wide second turn, floated out five wide entering the stretch, not a threat.
