Bay Colt, (Apr), by Brother Derek - Nyanza by Montbrook. Trainer Baffert Bob. Bred by Eico Stable(KY).

ZEE BROS grabbed command soon after start while removed from the inside, took some outside pressure racing under a firm hold, shook clear around the turn, was guided out to about the four path entering the stretch, opened up under right handed coaxing in mid stretch then maintained a comfortable advantage while being kept to his business. BOBCAT JIM prompted the pace outside the winner, gave chase around the turn, was displaced near the sixteenth marker but gamely battled back to the inside of BRAVE DAVE to earn the place. BRAVE DAVE stalked the pace four wide, came a bit wider for the drive, made some progress inside the final furlong but was outfinished for second. CITY OF WESTON chased the pace off the rail, made a slight move nearing the quarter pole, shifted to the rail in mid stretch and came up empty. UNDRAFTED lacked speed, picked up a bit of steam racing inside into the lane, altered out for the final three sixteenths but could only generate a mild rally. RES JUDICATA saved ground in an even effort. PERILOUS INDIAN, sluggish from the gate, failed to menace. CLAWBACK, four to five wide giving hard pursuit mid turn, failed to kick on and dropped back after a half mile. TOUR GUIDE failed to keep pace, raced off the inside entering the stretch and weakened.
