

ABOUT THE NEW “ROAD TO THE KENTUCKY DERBY” – In June 2012, Churchill Downs announced it would institute a point system to qualify for the 139th running of the Grade I, $2 million Kentucky Derby Presented by Yum! Brands on Saturday, May 4, 2013, and abandon the graded stakes criteria that was used from 1986-2012 to determine which 20 horses would have preference for America’s greatest race. The new “Road to the Kentucky Derby” is a 36-race series that will award points to the Top 4 finishers in each race.

HOW TO GET INTO THE KENTUCKY DERBY STARTING GATE – Points will be awarded to the Top 4 finishers in each race. Points during the 19-race “Kentucky Derby Prep Season” between late-September and mid-February will be distributed on 10-4-2-1 scale. Within the “Road to the Kentucky Derby” is the “Kentucky Derby Championship Series,” which is a compacted 10-week run up to the first Saturday in May that includes 17 marquee events often used as springboards to the Derby. Appropriately, those races will have elevated point values: 50-20-10-5 during the first leg; 100-40-20-10 during the second leg; and 20-8-4-2 for “Wild Card” races. The Top 20 point earners nominated to the Triple Crown will earn a spot in the Kentucky Derby starting gate if more than 20 horses enter the race. The Kentucky Derby field has been limited to 20 starters since 1975, and at least 20 horses have entered the Derby every year since 2004 and 12 of the last 14 years.

TIEBREAKERS – If two or more horses have the same number of points, which can often be the case whenever a point system is introduced, the tiebreaker to get into the Kentucky Derby will be earnings in non-restricted stakes races, whether the races are graded or not.

FILLIES – If a filly wants to run in the Kentucky Derby she can, but she’ll have to earn her way into the field by accumulating points against open company just like the rest of the colts and geldings and be nominated to the Triple Crown. Additionally, any points earned by a filly in the “Road to the Kentucky Derby” series against open company will be credited to her point total in the “Road to the Kentucky Oaks” series.

DEAD-HEATS – In the event of a dead-heat (tie) in a “Road to the Kentucky Derby” race, those horses will divide equally the points they would have received jointly had one beaten the other.

SPLIT DIVISIONS – In the event a “Road to the Kentucky Derby” race is split into divisions and each division awards its originally published purse money, points will be awarded as scheduled for each division. If the originally published purse is halved for each division, points will be halved as well.

SCHEDULE CHANGES – No changes to the 2012-13 schedule are planned at this time. Churchill Downs officials will review which races will be included in the “Road to the Kentucky Derby” series annually. Plans call for the schedule of races to be announced each July.

NOMINATIONS – Horses born in 2010 can be made eligible to run in this year’s Kentucky Derby and Triple Crown with a $600 early payment due by Saturday, Jan. 26, 2013. A late period for nominations at $6,000 each will close Saturday, March 23, 2013. In addition to the Triple Crown nomination fee, owners must pay $25,000 to enter the Derby by 10 a.m. ET on Wednesday, May 1, 2013, and an additional $25,000 to start. If there are less than 20 Triple Crown nominees entered, a horse may be supplemented for $200,000.

POST POSITION DRAW – The Kentucky Derby post position draw – a traditional “pill pull” in which horses’ entry blanks are pulled simultaneously with a numbered pill to determine what stall a horse will break from the starting gate – will be held at Churchill Downs on Wednesday, May 1, 2013, at 5 p.m. ET (Live on NBC Sports Network). Up to 24 horses may enter the race and four horses can be listed as “also eligible” and would be ranked in order accordingly; they could draw into the field should any horse(s) be scratched before scratch time on Friday, May 3, 2013 at 9 a.m. ET.

PRIZE MONEY – The Kentucky Derby winner will receive a gold trophy plus an estimated $1.24 million payday. A total of $400,000 will be awarded to the runner-up, $200,000 to third, $100,000 to fourth and $60,000 to fifth.
