Bay Filly, (Mar), by Union Rags - Sangrita by Mr. Greeley. Trainer Michael R. Matz. Bred by Dorothy A. Matz (KY).

TEQUILITA was well placed off the leaders through the early going, moved four wide rallying late on the turn and into the stretch, came away with the lead coming to the furlong grounds and was all out to turn back PRETTY CITY DANCER while drifting out some. PRETTY CITY DANCER came away in midpack despite breaking awkwardly and was allowed to settle down the backstretch, began finding stride into the turn and followed right behind TEQUILITA four wide, came outside that rival to make a run after being straightened away, finished willingly but was repelled. BRAHMS CAT was off a step slow and outrun early along the rail, began easing out around the turn to be five wide turning for home, rallied willingly despite neglecting to change leads and could not reach the top pair. SUMMER LUCK was outsprinted through the opening stages well out in the track, closed some ground five wide into the lane and improved position late without threatening for a major share. MS LOCUST POINT broke to the lead and was quickly clear, saved ground showing the way to the stretch, began to shorten stride after six furlongs and gave way. WILDCAT KATE was prominently placed three wide tracking the pacesetter, moved in a path late on the turn, could not gain under pressure through upper stretch and weakened. MY LERLER moved off the rail attempting to rally in upper stretch and had nothing left. LIRICA raced four wide and was outrun throughout. BODE'S DREAM was taken off the rail midway down the backstretch giving chase to MS LOCUST POINT, was unable to keep pace around the turn and dropped back steadily.
