Gray or Roan Gelding, (Feb), by Wildcat Heir - Phantom Girl by Half Ours. Trainer Ralph E. Nicks. Bred by Raroma Stable, Robert Dedovic & Martha Fisher (FL).

PHANTOM RO broke in at the start then matched strides for early lead, edged away from MAJESTIC SECRET while taking on challenge of DUNK, repelled bid three sixteenths pole, roused forward to clear lead, continued game and clear along inside under driving finish. DUNK prompted pace along outside, inched way up to challenge PHANTOM RO in turn, could not move on with rival top stretch, continued with response and dug in to hold place. SOUTACHE hit gate at the start, raced off top trio at half mile marker, made move midway through the turn, continued in pursuit, dueled for runner up spots and held share in final strides. MAJESTIC SECRET vied along inside of eventual winner in backstretch, could not match strides and weakened in turn, kept along inside, then shifted out at sixteenth pole, made game rebid but was too late to get to runner up finishers, clearly best of rest. KINGSTON PIKE hustled up along inside at the start, lacked early foot to gain close position, raced wide into stretch, no impact. LITTLE DOUBT dropped back three furlongs out. TIP SHEET lost inside iron past the half, lost the rider, ran around loose, caught by outriders. Race was hand timed
