Bay Colt, (Feb), by Harlan's Holiday - Pension by Seeking the Gold. Trainer Kiaran P. McLaughlin. Bred by Gainesway Thoroughbreds Ltd. (KY).

ANNUAL REPORT off the inside at all times, was put to encouragement seemingly from the get-go, departed the backstretch from the four path, was given its cue swinging one path wider into the stretch, began to lug inward near the three-sixteenths pole, and would continue to do so for the next sixteenth, taking KING KRANZ along for the ride and leading the rider of READY DANCER to get steadied out contention altogether, forged to the front in the final furlong and shook free. KING KRANZ took up the chase two to three wide on the turn, proceeded to get angled outward from the five-sixteenths pole, settled into the four path at the head of the stretch, joined in on the fight for the front, got carried in several paths by the errant winner during the final stages of the run through the furlong grounds, failed to keep pace with the top one late, but mustered up a good courage to finish comfortably in the clear for place honors. MANHATTAN DAN had the rider take hold after coming in as the field was sent on its way, quickly established control and drew out to an open lead, was rated along from a slight distance off the rail setting the opening splits, settled into the stretch and was set down just as the pressure had picked up in intensity, got overtaken with about a furlong remaining, steadily backed away thereafter. READY DANCER carried in slightly right after the start, was brushed from both ends afterwards, stalked the loose leader from the three path on the turn, was in the same one spinning into the lane, ranged up into a contending position, got herded inward from pressure originating from a wayward rival, that being the eventual winner, culminating in the pilot checking his mount out of contention in midlane. FULL SALUTE chased the pace from the two path and gave way. LEGEND KEEPER saved ground to the quarter pole, having been put to a drive a sixteenth before reaching that station, got placed three wide at the top of lane, had no offering.
