Chestnut Filly, (Mar), by English Channel - We Use to Sing by Mineshaft. Trainer Eddie Kenneally. Bred by Mr. & Mrs. William L. Pape (KY).
 BOXWOOD broke well and secured inside position holding slim lead over NONCENTS in first turn, continued along inside setting pressured pace but appeared comfortable and settled on top, got away from NONCENTS while taking on challenge from additional rivals late final turn, still unleashed and maintained slight edge then prompted for more entering top stretch, responded and turned back rivals bids then challenged by FORTUNATE GIRL, dug in gamely and shook of foe then kept on gamely with ears pinned back and held on. PIVOTTINA (FR) was allowed to settle out of gate and continued unhurried in first turn, steadied in backstretch then picked up pace and steadily advanced into closer contention in final turn, came in path and brushed with WHAT A BEAUT top stretch then driving gaining closer contention, got bumped late when FORTUNATE GIRL drifted out and finished edging up to winner. RED ROUNDER stalked through backstretch, patiently ridden along inside in final turn, hit traffic top stretch, got out path in late stages then bumped hard by FORTUNATE GIRL deep stretch. FORTUNATE GIRL was bit eager but remained under rider's command being rated along outside, steadily advanced position and raced in aim at quarter pole, winner took back clear lead upper stretch, roused back up into striking distance then failed to kick on with rival, went to go for left handed stick and drifted out bumping into PIVOTTINA then came under right handed and drifted out bumping hard with RED ROUNDER and lost show. WHAT A BEAUT settled nicely being rated through backstretch, raced in crowded quarters but made way through in final turn, brushed into by PIVOTTINA upper stretch, kept on then in raced in traffic and tight quarters deep stretch, checked sharply. BEECHWOOD ELLA (IRE) raced in range through backstretch, moved up and raced in aim two path at quarter pole, could not kick with rival entering top stretch and steadily weakened. SHOOBIEDOOBYDOO was unhurried, made bid and raced in contention but failed to sustain bid near quarter pole. NONCENTS applied pace pressure to BOXWOOD in first turn, continued to force issue into final turn, could not keep pace and began to fade leaving quarter pole.
