Dark Bay or Brown Gelding, (Mr), by Medaglia d'Oro - Grand Prayer by Grand Slam. Trainer Marcus J. Vitali. Bred by Edward P. Evans (VA)

VALID placed in early contention while settled along the inside, continued unmasked tracking pacesetter entering the far turn, continued patiently then angled out three wide at top of lane, set sights on leader, swept by MR JORDAN at furlong marker and continued on top under a drive. MADEFROMLUCKY was taken in hand and allowed to settle off early leaders, began to pick up pace in late backstretch, lost whip at three eighths pole, steadily gained ground along outside, was set down for drive and continued willingly bid to the wire. MR. JORDAN quickly took the lead at start, continued to set pace racing in hand, felt on coming challenge of eventual winner in far turn, came under ride at the head of lane, could not move on at the furlong marker and weakened back to show. JUST CALL KENNY placed midpack and stalked pace in the backstretch, rode the rail into the drive, angled out path in final furlong and continued steady bid to the wire. MEXIKOMA was reserved racing near the back of pack, came under ride four wide in the final turn, continued with interest along outside in the drive and improved position. AMI'S HOLIDAY was well placed rated off the top trio in the backstretch, picked up pace leaving the three eighths pole, failed to sustain bid in far turn and flattened out in the drive. ENCRYPTION was unhurried settled back off the pace in the backstretch, saved ground along inside, hustled up for response in far turn and failed to kick on. SR. QUISQUEYANO fanned out six wide heading into first turn, placed up close just off early pace, continued in contention along the outside in the far turn, could not sustain bid and faded. LYNX was bumped a bit shortly after the start, raced back off the pace and failed to move forward. JUAN AND BINA failed to move into contention.
