Dark Bay or Brown Colt, (Mar), by Haynesfield - Shawnee Country by Chief's Crown. Trainer Barclay Tagg. Bred by Morgan's Ford Farm (VA).

REALM broke alertly and raced as a team with MOON KING right from the start, took up position in the two path during their gap duel, got asked for more as the front runners settled into upper stretch, won the battle during the next furlong to take over the advantage, dug in well enough in the late stages to remain comfortably in the clear. WAR STROLL given a shake of the reins from the pilot springing forth, angled sharply towards the inside, chose the two path though as the way to go around the bend, chased the loose pace combatats while being put to solid encouragement, swung three wide into the stretch, rallied in unision with two others for the majority of the stretch, bested them all plus the loser of the speed duel for place honors. ADD FOUR shied inward and away from pressure originating from its next door neighbor at the break, began the run around the bend placed in the two path, was switched over to a drive past the five-sixteenths marker, came four wide into the stretch, was between rivals proceeding down the lane, got the show in a tight finish with three others. MOON KING broke on top by a narrow margin, cut over to the inside, was the inner member of a gap duel, the other participant being the eventual winner, got set down for the drive, became detached from the top one with about a sixteenth remaining, tried to stave off a threesome in the late stages but failed to do so. HUNDRED YEARS travelled three wide on the turn, fanned two paths wider into the stretch, rallied as the outermost of a trio after getting straightened away, closed in willingly but with only minor spoils to show for it. TOTALLY DISCREET leaned inward and made contact with the left side of the starting gate, continued to move inward displaying some rankness, got checked by the rider and fell back by at least four lengths before getting back into the stretch, took the insdie route from the top of the bend to its end, was under a drive cutting the corner into the stretch, made no headway.
