Bay Colt, (Feb), by Bluegrass Cat - Santa Vindi by Vindication. Trainer Chad C. Brown. Bred by WinStar Farm, LLC (NY).

FLEXIBILITY managed to escape being impacted by the stumbling rival to its left, glided into the two path, got rated keeping watch on a three-way pace dispute, tipped out when ready after stepping foot onto the far turn and issued a four wide challenge past the five-sixteenths pole, took over in short order, responded when given his cue. lengthening away from upper to midstretch, came out a bit in the last few jumps with the outcome no longer in doubt. VORTICITY broke on top and maintained a prominent position, cut over to the inside, had the rider hold something in reserve while being pressed by a pair of opponents parked out in paths two and three respectively, got pounced upon by FLEXIBILITY just as his fellow pace combatants were in the first stages of backing away, surrendered the front soon afterwards, finished with good courage down the lane to garner the place. IN EQUALITY raced towards the inside, advanced towards the front runners after departing the backstretch, having been called upon for run and with the tempo slowing down quite a bit, was driven five wide into the stretch and after being straightened away, rallied to finish a non-threatening third. BIRD OF TREY disputed the pace from between rivals for three-quarters and tired. LET ME GO FIRST reluctant to load, broke in good order, took up the chase from the two path, well reserved early, swung four wide into the stretch, lacked the needed response. CONDO KING came inward sharply with its initial step, took up residence in the three path, forced the issue as the widest of a trio for six furlongs before giving way. SILENT ASSASSIN rode the rail around each bend, wandering into the two path for a spell while making his way on the backstretch, drifted six wide into the stretch with little left to offer. DONEGAL MOON fell to his face at the start, losing the rider in the process. There was a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the start of the race before the result was declared official.
