Bay Gelding, (Feb), by Bellamy Road - Rule One by Street Cry (IRE). Trainer Richard A. Violette, Jr.. Bred by Fred W. Hertrich III & John D. Fielding (NY).

DIVERSIFY away approximately a length the fastest, retained control, got spotted at a slight distance from off the rail, carved out the pace on a loosely-contested lead and would do so for the opening mile, felt an uptick in pressure prior to heading into the stretch, waited until the vicinity of the three-sixteenths marker before asked for more, gave in, digging in well in the final stages to prevail. KEEN ICE three then two wide on the opening bend, continued from at a considerable distance from off the rail, picked it up when asked beginning to maneuver for position past the half mile pole, was forced to set up in path five by the five-sixteenths pole, after losing out on a closer spot to the inside to DESTIN, swung into the lane appearing to have good momentum, brushed with PAVEL throughout the stretch run, rallying for the place. PAVEL stalked the winner from the two path, stayed within range to the quarter pole, got turned loose for the drive home, brushed with KEEN ICE at multiple points heading down the lane, got outfinished and had to settle for the show. GOOD SAMARITAN loped along from the inside, tipped into path two midway on the far turn, paused in hand before committing to the outside a second time a sixteenth later, straightened away in path five in upper stretch and made no impact. DESTIN had the pilot grab hold after stumbling at the start, was strung out four wide on the first turn, shifted a bit closer to the rail on the backstretch, was asked to pick it up after getting in a race with KEEN ICE for position once onto turn two, beat that one for the four path by the five-sixteenths pole, stepped into the stretch and had no rally. RALLY CRY underwent what was primarily a three wide journey to the quarter pole, was forced to chase the top one wedged in between rivals beginning from around the three-eighths pole, got steadied seeming to be pinched a few jumps shy of the head of the stretch, failed to recover any interest. HIGHLAND SKY made it onto the inside route soon after the start, closed the gap after the stepping onto the backstretch, into the teeth of the tempo having picked up a few ticks, tracked the winner, teamed up with a pair of opponents to his outside, failed to keep pace with them though coming within sight of the half mile pole, continued to hug the rail on the far turn, arrived at the stretch and backed away.
