Bay Gelding, (Feb), by Into Mischief - Life Happened by Stravinsky. Trainer Rodriguez R. Rudy. Bred by Machmer Hall(KY).

VYJACK came away in good order, took up in position in midpack, was coaxed along in the two path proceeding down the backstretch, angled into the four path as the half was being completed, unleashed a run to arrive at the end of the bend within striking distance, got put to a hard drive spinning into the lane, closed in readily to begin the final furlong with only a slight deficit left to be made up, forged to the front soon afterwards and gradually extended the margin, kept to the task at hand. RIVER ROCKS off alertly, established command, was sent over onto the inside route, picked up the pace noticeably after the first fraction had been recorded, yet still felt the presence of a pair of rivals parked out in paths two and three nonetheless, had the winner arrive on the scene heading for the quarter pole and got let out, saw the advantage dwindle down steadily to a precious sliver during the ensuing furlong, released the lead a short distance past the eighth pole, continued onward gamely to be second best. ITSMYLUCKYDAY secured a forward position after the start, raced in three path for the majority of the way down the backstretch, bumped lightly with BRADESTER while getting nudged closer to the rail near the nine-sixteenths pole, remained on hold pressing the issue from between rivals during the run around the bend, got called upon swinging into the lane, lacked the needed response. SCARLY CHARLY took up the chase being two wide on the turn, was between rival entering the stretch, closed in but fell short of snagging away show honors. CAPO BASTONE saved ground throughout and failed to menace. GOLDEN TICKET along the inside for slightly more than a half, vacated the rail leaving the five-sixteenths pole, was five wide a furlong later, flattened out. BRADESTER well out in the strip down the backstretch, made light contact nearing its end, was the outermost of a threesome vying for control on the turn, gave way.
