Bay Colt, (Apr), by Hard Spun - Smart Farming by Smart Strike. Trainer James A. Jerkens. Bred by Gainesway Thoroughbreds Ltd. (KY).

ROCKETRY, bumped at the break, settled off the pace while saving ground, eased out some advancing near the seven eighths, shifted out five wide and commenced a bold run leaving the three eighths, forged to command soon into the lane, failed to shake clear but dug in under steady hand encouragement to prove best. DABSTER grabbed command early and set a rated pace inside, took pressure into the far turn, dug in when confronted by ROCKETRY near the quarter pole and fought on gamely to the wire. BIG DOLLAR BILL was wrangled back off the pace nearing the first turn, angled out and followed the winner past the three eighths, advanced four wide into the lane, shifted out a bit near mid stretch but flattened out late. TOAST OF NEW YORK, bumped and squeezed back at the break, recovered and moved up well wide nearing the wire the first time, dropped in to stalk three wide, was under pressure into the lane and faded. SENIOR INVESTMENT was steadied saving ground into the stretch the first time, eased out, gained between foes leaving the far turn, chased and gave way. WAR STORY was rated back early, moved up six wide between foes nearing the line the first time, angled in to about the four path near the seven eighths, pursued to the far turn then tired. TERM OF ART stalked towards the inside, was under a drive leaving the far turn and weakened. FINGLAS was outrun. HONORABLE DUTY bobbed at the break, bid to press, faltered in the lane, was pulled up and vanned off.
