Chestnut Mare, (Feb), by Footstepsinthesand (GB) - Miss Corinne (GB) by Mark of Esteem (IRE). Trainer Todd A. Pletcher. Bred by Denis McDonnell (IRE).

SANDIVA (IRE) was two wide on the first turn and allowed to settle as a brisk pace was established, began moving three wide into the far turn, caught ISABELLA inside the final furlong and edged away under good handling. SEA COAST (IRE) was closest to runaway early leader ISABELLA while inside, came off the rail continuing the chase two wide into the stretch, angled inward as ISABELLA drifted out some, and finished gamely on the rail to nip that one for second money. ISABELLA SINGS showed her customary alacrity to go clear soon after the start, set a strong pace well out in the course down the backstretch, continued along while moving a bit closer to the rail around the turn, was collared by SANDIVA just inside the eighth pole, drifted out and lost the place at the wire. DICKINSON raced as a team outside SEA COAST as they chased ISABELLA, steadied slightly between horses late on the far turn while being out-moved by SANDIVA, regrouped after that and finished with good courage to be coming on again near the line. INSIDE OUT trailed for six furlongs, found best stride swinging four wide into the stretch and gained ground without threatening. SEEKING TREASURE saved ground throughout and finished evenly while never able to reach contention. ELUSIVE MILLION (IRE) was two wide on the turns and always outrun.
