NEWSPAPEROFRECORD (IRE) established control in short order, was firmly held showing the way towards the two path, arrived into the stretch with none latched on, was at the furlong grounds before getting switched over to stronger handling, shifted into the three path then drew off smartly, kept busy to the end. VARENKA guided over to the inside soon after the start, was content to track the winner from midpack, narrowed in after three-quarters was completed, gained full clearance once STELLAR AGENT abandoned the route turning into the stretch, rallied for the place, although posing no threat to the winner. STELLAR AGENT sat forwardly placed along the inside route, came under a ride angling into path two for entrance into the stretch, got outfinished for the place. DOGTAG took up the chase two wide during the initial stages after making light contact with VIRGINIA ELOISE, picked up interest shouldering her way into the three path past the midway point of far turn, got set down for the drive home, made no headway in the final furlong. MISS TECHNICALITY unhurried towards path two in the early going, sat parked out five wide on the far turn, swung into the stretch about as wide and made no impact. NO MORE FAST WOMEN two wide onto the backstretch, was well held continuing to take ipath two to the quarter pole, swung into action by getting maneuvered into path six during the first half of the stretch, lugged in slightly from some right side pressure with under an eighth to go, making no headway at the time. VIRGINIA ELOISE brushed at the start, went on to save ground to upper stretch to no avail. KITTY'S LEGACY stalked the winner three wide on the backstretch and then from there on the second bend, gave way. DECORATED ACE strung out three wide for six furlongs, was nudged into path four at the five-sixteenths marker, made it into the stretch and backed away.
