Bay Colt, (Mar), by Dubawi (IRE) - Indian Petal (GB) by Singspiel (IRE). Trainer Charles Appleby. Bred by Godolphin (GB ).

OLD PERSIAN (GB) was settled in nicely while third a long way off the runaway leader, advanced into striking position midway on the far turn, engaged the new leader at the three sixteenths pole and was kept to his task with a clear lead late. NESSY was well off the pace along the inside, closed on the far turn following the eventual winner but could not match that one's energy, prevailing gamely in a three horse place photo. FOCUS GROUP was well off the pace with all the others, trailing into the far turn before rallying two to three wide and looming up dangerously at the top of the stretch but the winner was gone and he ended up in the middle of a three horse place photo. TIZ A SLAM chased the runaway leader before advancing into the far turn, ran by that rival but the winner was on him quickly and his lead was short-lived, and he ended on the short end of a three horse place photo. SIR SAHIB off the pace early, came two to three wide on the final turn but could not match the closing power of the other rivals, only able to run by the runaway leader in the stretch. COOLER MIKE led quickly in a reasonable first quarter mile but then sped up and opened a twenty length lead only to tire midway on the far turn and retreat from that point.
