Bay Colt, (Jan), by Freud - Irish Emotion by Precise End. Trainer Rodriguez R. Rudy. Bred by Tony Grey(NY).

DARRIN'S DILEMMA contently stalked the loose pacesetter with the rider applying rating tactics, ranged up towards that opponent nearing the quarter pole, got let out a notch just past the three-sixteenths pole, as the stretch duel commenced, left the eighth pole with the advantage, further increased the lead thereafter, primarily hand urged. BOLD DEED under a firm hold leaving the starting gate, opened up a clear early lead, carved the initial splits, rated along the inside, was put to some light coaxing as the winner made his presence nearing the quarter pole, came to be under much stronger handling a short distance later, failed to keep pace with the top one, relinquishing the lead as the pair headed to the furlong marker, dug in with good determination for the remainder of the race, but had to settle for place honors. WARRIOR UP off the inside, split rivals at the five-sixteenths pole, while commencing to rally, came home willingly enough to grab the show. OUR ELI three wide at the three-eighths pole, got out finished. FREUDS ANA STREAK tracked the pacesetter from the inside, was put to a prolonged drive but could make no headway. ACTLIKEYOUMEANIT angled off the rail coming to the quarter pole, had no kick. SEEK TO DESTROY underwent a three wide pursuit and tired.
