Bay Filly, (May), by Divine Park - Town Queen by Williamstown. Trainer William B. Bradley. Bred by Carl Hurst & William Bradley (KY).
DIVINE QUEEN vied for the lead early along the inside, stayed on the rail into the lane, came again inside the eighth pole from the rail and drove clear in the final stages. ASCOT DAY vied for the lead early three wide, was in the three path entering the lane with the lead, inched ahead in the stretch but yielded in the final sixteenths. UPSET BREWING stalked the pace early, shifted into the four path in the turn while making a bid but flattened out late in the stretch run. AWESTRUCK chased the pace early, shifted into the four path in the turn and leveled off late in the stretch drive. HONEY BUNNY trailed the field early on, shifted into the four path in the turn and moved up in the stretch. HEADLAND vied for the lead early from between horses, was off the rail into the lane, steadied a bit near the three sixteenths pole and faded late.
