Bay Colt, (Mar), by Blame - Unbridled Empire by Empire Maker. Trainer Todd A. Pletcher. Bred by John R. Penn & Frank Penn (KY).

MARAUD was off to good start and raced just off leader in first turn, was allowed to settle and continued behind SPEED FRANCO through early going, moved up closer then tapped along past the quarter pole, responded under right handed drive upper stretch, roused forward reaching equal terms with SPEED FRANCO to duel for the lead, raced heads apart determinedly then gained edge nearing the wire to prevail. SPEED FRANCO led the way by slim margin in the first turn, set the pace saving ground and remained comfortable on top leading into far turn, challenged by MARAUD with outside running HAWKISH in striking distance, held off latter rival and dueled heads apart with MARAUD, fought back gamely from inside position got edged out nearing wire. THERAPIST was unsettled in the gate, backed out then stubborn to reload, settled saving ground along the rail through the backstretch, asked for more and got back even response in far turn then had kick nearing the wire to gain share. HAWKISH sat back off the pace, loomed closer along outside near the quarter pole, raced in striking distance a furlong out then flattened in deep stretch. NEEPAWA raced two wide in the first turn then nicely rated through the backstretch, came under strong ride, raced in strong contention but lacked needed kick for serious impact. RENAISSANCE FROLIC raced under slight restraint to take off early pace while saving ground in the first turn, hustled up for response in far turn then faded in the lane. EYE OF A JEDI dwelt at the start, trailed in back and could not recover from poor start.
