Dark Bay or Brown Colt, (Mar), by Hard Spun - Enthused by Seeking the Gold. Trainer Kiaran P. McLaughlin. Bred by Flaxman Holdings Limited (KY).

A THREAD OF BLUE went two wide around the first turn unhurried, sat patiently just off the dueling leaders up the backstretch, took over from outside three then two wide approaching the stretch, edged clear under pressure, and responded gamely to turn back CASA CREED through the late stages. CASA CREED stayed in range three to four wide on the turns, ranged up looming a threat outside A THREAD OF BLUE leaving the quarter-pole, issued a stern challenge through the furlong grounds but did not have quite enough. LOUDER THAN BOMBS worked his way inside around the first turn near the back, moved out three wide late on the far turn, and rallied widest for a share while no threat to the top two. ART G IS BACK settled in midpack saving ground for six furlongs, shifted to the two-path for the drive and offered a mild late response. KING OTTOKAR went up to vie for command inside HARD BELLE after the first quarter-mile, got collared by the winner into the lane and faded through the last eighth of a mile. STIRLING DRIVE lagged at the rear to the stretch toward the inside, and never made his presence felt. CASTLEWOOD TERRACE raced between horses early, and failed to become a factor three wide around the far turn. HARD BELLE hustled out to a clear lead through the stretch the first time, was joined from the inside by KING OTTOKAR around the first turn, vied outside that one up the backstretch, and dropped back through the far turn with nothing left.
