Chestnut Colt, (M<sup>ay</sup>), by Justin Phillip - Catch My Fancy by Yes It's True. Trainer Todd A. Pletcher. Bred by Castleton Lyons & Kilbo Estate (NY).

WHAT A CATCH broke forwardly placed and remained so, cut over to the inside travelling along the backstretch, vied from a slight distance from off the rail matched up with the second place finisher, was still engaged with that foe as they headed into the stretch, was more in the two path than before when set down for the drive home, saw MORNING BREEZ inch up in the final stages but dug in well enough to stay in the clear. MORNING BREEZ began to pul hard on the right soon after the start, got wrangled onto the two path in time for the commencement of the run around the bend, raced as a team with the top one until the quarter pole, got called upon for more spinning into upper stretch, was towards the four path leaving the three-sixteenths marker as the fight for the front against the winner resumed, displayed willingness to the end but got staved off. ANALYZE THE ODDS stayed along the inside route after springing from the gate, was put to a brisker and brisker ride making his way around the turn, fanned out to the five path from the top of the lane to the three-sixteenths marker, got outfinished. MORRISON had the rider take hold after breaking slightly to the outside, was three wide entering the turn and sent four wide exiting it, failed to fire when put to a drive. OVER SALTY strung out four wide at the three-eighths pole, was never in it.
