Bay Colt. (Apr), by Into Mischief - Cayala by Cherokee Run. Trainer Todd A. Pletcher. Bred by Kingswood Farm (KY).

ONE LINER forwardly placed on the outside in the first turn, continued within striking distance the middle half, called on for some run three wide in the far turn, roused with a right handed stick turning for home, collared the leader inside the furlong marker, kicked well clear. PETROV closest to the leader off the inside, pounced on that rival in the second turn, clear into the lane, continued to hold the advantage past the furlong marker, offered little resistance to the victor the final sixteenth, well clear of the others. LOOKIN AT LEE bobbed at the start then was put in tight, raced well back, continued near the rear far turn, swung out four wide into the lane, lodged a mild, belated rally down the middle of the strip to annex the show, no threat to the top two. SILVER DUST back off the pace, pulled firmly onto the backstretch, two path second turn, traffic quarter out, continued to be covered up through the stretch, between rivals at the wire. DILETTANTE allowed to settle off the pace, three wide second turn when moving a bit closer, flattened out in the drive. UNCONTESTED broke out, vied early, got clear before a quarter, continued to show the way up the backstretch under restraint, offered little resistance to the runner up second turn, continued to weaken in the drive. HENCE lacked speed, four wide in the second turn, lacked the needed response in the drive. P C COWBOY devoid of speed, trailed well back, passed some tiring rivals while never a threat. ROWDY THE WARRIOR bothered, off slowly, remained always back. CHIEF KNOW IT ALL well back while racing outside, floated out five wide turning into the stretch, remained back. WARRIOR'S CLUB forwardly placed along the inside, gave way. CU RAHY asked in the early going pass the wire the first time, steadily faded.
