Bay Filly, (Jan), by Street Sense - Bold Angel by Cat Thief. Trainer Philip D'Amato. Bred by Hunter Valley Farm (KY).

STREET FANCY was in tight from between foes and steadied shortly after the break, settled, then chased from along the rail, saved ground into the stretch, roused passing quarter marker, inhaled foes from inside, split rivals in mid stretch, reached the front passing sixteenth marker and inched away under urging. STAYS IN VEGAS tracked pace from between foes, continued slightly off the rail, moved up under asking in upper stretch, rallied from between rivals then moved past PRETTY N COOL inside eighth marker but could not stave off winner nearing the wire. SUTTON'S SMILE unhurried while steered to the inside, came back out while pulling into backstretch, advanced four wide around the final turn and into the stretch and was along late for the show. PRETTY N COOL was sent up three wide to join early pacesetter, dueled from off the rail then gained control nearing second bend, retained cushion departing that turn, dug in from slightly off the rail but grew weary in the final eighth. TREASURING sped to the front then dueled from along the rail to the second turn, remained prominent from the inside into and through the stretch but weakened some in the final stages. PATRIOTIC DIAMOND chased while bit off the rail, continued two or three wide to the stretch and only passed tiring rivals. SURFSIDE TIARA tracked leaders from between rivals, remained two or three wide into and around the final turn, continued between foes passing three-sixteenths marker but also weakened. PACIFIC HEAT gained stalking position while three wide, caught four wide leaving the backstretch, remained bit wide into the stretch but retreated in the final furlong. MAMA'S SUGAR reserved while outside rivals, chased three wide to second turn, came out further entering the stretch but had little left for the drive.
