Bay Gelding, (Apr), by Distorted Humor - Spun Silk by A.P. Indy. Trainer Charlton Baker. Bred by Darley (KY ).

JOKING came away in good order and settled into the two path, stayed within range of the others placed to some light urging after stepping onto the turn, quickened when put to a full drive as the half was being reached, spun five wide into the stretch, and after getting straightened away went after the front runners in earnest, drifted out slightly during the run leading up and through the furlong grounds, steadily cut into the deficit, got engaged in an abbreviated duel with DADS CAP in deep stretch and emerged the victor with a couple of jumps to spare before the finish line. DADS CAPS broke on top and maintained the advantage, carved out the pace, rated and kept at a slight distance from off the rail, arrived at the head of the stretch and was switched over to a drive, lost little of the advantage during the ensuing furlong but with dangers lurking both along the rail and to his outside by this juncture, dug in gamely only to get reeled in a short distance from the wire. HOLY BOSS bobbled at the start, remained along the inside route, idled behind a wall of rivals traversing around the turn, had enough room along the inside corridor to launch a rally as he cut the corner into the lane, had that set in motion by getting called upon, mustered up a mild response, sufficient enough to claim the show award. CATALINA RED put a brisk hand ride, split rivals down the backstretch, pressed the issue from the two path, was set down in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, vied with vigor before weakening in the final stages. ALWAYS SUNSHINE three wide entering the turn, was in the four path exiting it, lacked needed late response.
