Chestnut Filly, (Apr), by Newfoundland - The Hess Express by Lord Carson. Trainer Beattie M. Todd. Bred by Brad Anderson(KY).
OUR KHRYSTY was off awkwardly after leaping up just moments before the field was sent off and running, rejoined the pack under her own courage during the run down the backstretch, continued to bide time until midway around the bend, moved up willingly to reach a good striking position upon reaching the quarter pole, fanned four wide into the lane, was finally asked for the initial time soon afterwards, made up ground quickly to draw alongside the leader at the furlong marker, battled onward, got a nose in front just prior to the wire and dug in gamely to remain in front. FUNNY MOON off a bit slowly, advanced into a good forward position, was placed in the three path, well in hand, within range of a pace dispute, moved when ready to take charge nearing the three-eighths pole, led the field into the stretch, was let out after feeling some pressure from the top one in the vicinity of three-sixteenths pole, engaged in a spirited tussle with that opponent from that point on, but came up on the short end of the win photo in a good try nonetheless. WAY WITH WORDS quickly maneuvered to the inside, was eased outward departing the backstretch, sought the three path, but denied when NICKSAPPEALINGLADY stubbornly held her ground, bumping lightly with that one in the process, eventually angled four wide a sixteenth pole, was called upon in upper stretch but failed to match pace with the top twosome. BANKER'S BUY took the inside route, angled three wide into the stretch and improved position. NICKSAPPEALINGLADY three wide around the turn, bumped with a rival in the vicinity of the three-eighths pole and tired. MISS MATCH (ARG) vied for the lead along the inside and faltered. MY DINAH underwent a wide journey and folded. MANITOBA MISS contested the pace from the two path and gave way.
