Chestnut Colt, (May), by Speightstown - Nothing Special by Tejabo. Trainer Asmussen M. Steven. Bred by Barry Weisbord & Margaret Santulli(NY).

HAYNESFIELD sprinted clear soon after the start, set the pace in hand for six furlongs, shook loose nearing the quarter pole, quickly opened a wide gap when roused and struck four times with the whip in upper stretch then drew off with the rider glancing back while being geared down leaving the furlong marker. CELLAR DWELLER was reserved along the inside on the backstretch, advanced three wide on the turn then rallied mildly from outside to clearly best the others. MIKE FROM QUEENS pressed the pace between horses early, angled in after going a half, dropped back on the turn and failed to threaten thereafter. HEHASNOSAY was bumped soundly at the start, raced well back along the rail to the turn and lacked a late response. PEACE TOWN bumped then bobbed at the start, moved up in hand, angled out on the first turn, pressed the pace outside the winner along the backstretch, lodged a brief move on the turn then gave way. ZOOGER lunched in the air at the start then was pinched back at the start and trailed throughout.
