Dark Bay or Brown Filly, (Apr), by Afleet Alex - Earlybird Road by Cherokee Run. Trainer John C. Servis. Bred by Stonehaven Steadings (KY).

FOUR INCH HEELS tugged her way forward saving ground near the five eighths, patiently tracked a contested pace, eased out to go around a tiring rival mid turn, shifted back in entering the lane, came under pressure past the three sixteenths, responded to the whip inside the eighth pole, took over a sixteenth out and drew clear under a drive. SWEET ON SMOKEY attended the pace two wide, disposed of BRENDA'S WAY leaving the three furlong marker then went clear, kept on under a drive past the eighth pole, was hooked from her inside nearing the sixteenth pole and gave way grudgingly. ONE PROUD GAL , between rivals early, moved up three wide under a hustling ride into the stretch, had aim on the leader and flattened out late. TALLOW settled off the pace while saving ground, angled out leaving the five sixteenths, shifted back in and kept on willingly. BLISSTIKUS , taken to rate off the rail, edged closer mid turn, swung out four to five wide leaving the three sixteenths then went even late. LADY PARADIME settled off the inside, angled five wide nearing the lane but lacked a solid kick. FOURSOUTHERNBELLES lost ground four wide, raced in range to the quarter pole, failed to go on when put to a drive and faded. AWAKE THE DAY gave chase three wide and weakened after five furlongs. BRENDA'S WAY , off slowly after bobbling, regrouped and sped up inside rivals to take command onto the main track, was hounded from her outside by SWEET ON SMOKEY, ceded to that one after a half mile and faltered. SPOTTED HEART , sluggish from the gate, was outrun.
