Bay Filly, (Apr), by Blame - Champagne Taste by Distorted Humor. Trainer George R. Arnold, II. Bred by Preston Madden (KY).

MISS KENTUCKY tracked three wide, firmly held her ground while swapping sharp bumps with GOLDEN MISCHIEF into the turn, continued on locked in battle with that one through the turn, forged command and braced to meet the challenge of TREBLE through the final sixteenth, and gamely proved best. TREBLE settled in hand, came four wide to make her bid, kicked on well and was chipping into lead of MISS KENTUCKY but was unable to bridge the gap. GOLDEN DOMER angled in leaving the chute to save ground, came under a ride leaving the turn, was making progress along the inside, tacked off of the rail and continued on willingly. PINCH HIT was shuffled back between runners at the start, settled saving ground, finished with a belated gain but failed to threaten. GOLDEN MISCHIEF was bumped at the start when BRAVE DAISEY came out, ranged up toward the inside, was hemmed in nearing the seven-sixteenths, attempted to create a seam bumping with MISS KENTUCKY hard and repeatedly, banged her way between runners into the turn, contested the issue to the final furlong and succumbed. BRAVE DAISEY broke outwardly bumping GOLDEN MISCHIEF was straightened away and sprinted clear to set a quick pace, was collared nearing the seven-sixteenths pole, was rattled around into the turn when the aforementioned rival jammed through, came up empty once headed and readily gave way.
