Bay Colt, (Mar), by High Cotton - Echo Bluff by Pine Bluff. Trainer Pompay M. Teresa. Bred by Stonecliff Farm(FL).

CURRENCY SWAP set the pace while well rated from the two path accompanied to his inside throughout, came under urging at the five-sixteenths to extend the lead, edged away to a safe lead with a furlong remaining, saw that margin cut into in the late stages while kept to task to prevail safely. BRIAN bumped at the start, tracked the front three wide throughout the turn, was set down at the quarter pole, kicked on willingly unable to reel in the top one while cutting into the lead in the late stages to garner the place honors. HARDENED WILDCAT bumped at the start, allowed to settle early on, chased the pace three wide through the turn, was set down nearing the top of the lane, shifted out to the four path with a furlong remaining for a clear lane, gaining ground steadily and readily while never threatening the winner. TIGHTEND TOUCHDOWN broke in at the start bumping with HARDENED WILDCAT causing each rival in turn to bump with their foe inside them, vied inside early on along the rail, accompanied the front through the turn, came under hand urging nearing the head of the lane, remained prominent until the three-sixteenths and weakened thereafter. PHIL DANCER bumped at the start, out sprinted in the early going, continued to lose ground through the turn while saving ground and trailed throughout.
