Chestnut Colt, (Mar), by Street Hero - Hour Queen by Gilded Time. Trainer William B. Bradley. Bred by Carl Hurst, Fred Bradley & William Bradley (KY).

THE PLAYER tracked three wide, took aim at NEOLITHIC leaving the second turn, came to level terms with three-sixteenths to run, shook off that one inside the furlong marker and drew away. NEOLITHIC opened clear to dictate terms along the inside, was challenged entering the stretch, offered resistance to the sixteenth pole, gave in but was clearly the best of the rest. MCCRAKEN settled in hand, tucked in to save ground near the tail of the field, got through and toiled on to earn the minor award. GIUSEPPE THE GREAT settled off of the inside, was collared between rivals on the backstretch, came two wide in the pack for four horses and failed to respond when asked. MALIBU PRO settled five wide, continued wide on the outside of the quartet and was not a factor. HONORABLE DUTY settled in hand three deep, was collared between foes on the backstretch, and showed little thereafter in a dull effort.
