Dark Bay or Brown Filly, (Feb), by Gone Astray - Happy Honeymoon by Honour and Glory. Trainer Steven Dwoskin. Bred by Mr. & Mrs. William A. T. Rainbow (FL).

STARSHIP BONITA broke well and quickly gained contending position along rail, angled out path and settled nicely while stalking top pair, began to inch up closer three wide nearing quarter pole then put to drive turning for home, began to gain on leader, switched sticks left to right, got by stubborn GO ASTRAY in final sixteenth and just lasted over outside gaining DESSERT HONEYS. DESSERT HONEYS settled while rated three to four wide running through the backstretch, picked up pace leaving three eighths pole, moved up closer then came out five wide losing some ground entering head of lane, moved out wider under left handed encouragement, drifted wide, switched sticks, gathered momentum then kicked in gamely in final stages, got up step too late. GO ASTRAY broke readily, cleared and angled to inside just after the start, quickly put under pressure from REAGAN'S ROSE, dueled inside of rival throughout the backstretch, shook free three furlongs out, still unasked at quarter pole, rider took peek over shoulder then set down for the drive, kept on gamely holding narrow lead then lost top spot in deep stretch, good effort. AWESOME MASS got brushed at break then steadied after start, raced in back opening quarter, roused forward three wide turning for home, raced in contention then finished evenly. PANTYHOSE was rated midpack while saving ground along inside, hustled up along rail turn then gaveway upper stretch. RIGHT ON stumbled hard at the start, raced near the back, urged along inside at head of lane and moved by couple faders. VALID INTEREST lacked early speed, moved out wider top stretch then lacked a needed rally. REAGAN'S ROSE dueled along outside of GO ASTRAY running through the backstretch, could not match strides past three eighths pole but kept on then came up empty leaving turn. HARBIN ICE got bumped at start and dropped to last after opening quarter.
