Bay Mare, (Apr), by Yes It's True - Noble Fire by Hook and Ladder. Trainer Linda Rice. Bred by Eklektikos Stable LLC (NY).

LA VERDAD broke alertly, as did JUDY THE BEAUTY, raced teamed up with the previously-named opponent, the more confidently-handled of the twosome, began to shake free coming to the end of the backstretch, showed the way on the turn facing little resistance, turned for home with none latched one, went onward for a couple of additional strides before switched over to a ride, kicked into gear, building up a comfortable advantage to start the final furlong, held all of it, while drifting out a bit in the final sixteenth. STREET STORY left the post parade as soon as she set foot onto the track, proceeded to come away in good order, underwent a three wide pursuit on the turn, was put to solid urging taking the fourth path for entrance into the stretch, outkicked a pair of rivals for place honors. JUDY THE BEAUTY off to a sharp beginning, raced alongside the winner positioned to that one's outside for the majority of the way down the backstretch, hand coaxed by the pilot and in direct contrast to the top one's motionless rider, began to fall back heading for the head of the turn, continued the chase from the two path, was let out a notch in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths pole, entered the stretch three wide under much stronger handling, got outfinished and had to settle for the show. ENCHANTRESS broke slightly outward being released from the starting gate, was pull off the nearest foe before contact between them, got put to some hand urging after racing sluggishly in the early going, saved ground for nearly a half, wandered into the three path from upper to mid lane, made no impact. ULTIMATE SHOPPER was sent over to the rail at the half mile pole, cut the corner into the stretch, had no rally.
