Gray or Roan Colt, (May), by Tapit - Scarlet Tango by French Deputy. Trainer Philip A. Bauer. Bred by Stonestreet Thoroughbred Holdings LLC (KY).

MADISON'S LUNA broke in brushing with rival at the start then quickly straightened out, settled nicely tracking top pair then let out notch entering turn, kicked by three wide leaving quarter pole, quickly cleared on top then shown whip while drifting in, never asked for best, impressively. SOUTACHE was rated five to six wide through the backstretch, hustled up four wide in the turn, kept under strong left handed drive wanting to drift in, kept three to four wide for second best. TRICKS TO DOO broke on top from between then quickly challenged and contested pace with BELLE TAPISSERIE holding edge, could not contend with eventual winner when rival kicked by at quarter pole, continued steady bid along inside well clear over rest. BELLE TAPISSERIE brushed inward at the start then hustled up taking slight edge over TRICKS TO DOO, continued vie along inside then no match when winner kicked by at quarter pole, came up tired in lane. IMPACT PLAYER slightly bobbed and brushed inward at the start, raced in last flight but not far from frontend, hustled up along rail off top trio three furlongs out then failed to sustain bid, steadily retreated. MY CHINUMADO tracked up close in striking range for lead then failed to keep pace and dropped back.
