Chestnut Filly, (Apr), by Caleb's Posse - Now U Know by Maria's Mon. Trainer Eddie Kenneally. Bred by Don Von Hemel & Todd Dunn (KY).

GIRLS KNOW BEST broke in at the start and roused up rail to take narrow lead in opening stages, continued on top under pressure by outside running BLUE BAHIA before rival started to inch up on equal terms leaving the turn, roused into lane and held narrow lead, aforementioned foe then pulled up and taken out of the race, cleared lead and kept on determinedly to prevail. JUST TALKIN broke in at the start then raced along rail tracking off top pair three furlongs out, angled out turning for home, set down for drive trying to reach FOR THE GIRLS, could not get to rival in time but dug in gamely to capture place. CHERRY LODGE broke in and brushed at the start then was rated off top two flights near three eighths pole, moved out five wide leaving the turn then responded when called upon, drifted out wider and finished with response, just missed place. JUSTA LADY raced off top flight positioned along outside of JUST TALKIN, roused five wide top stretch, raced in striking range then yielded late. PRETTY PERFECTION broke out at the start and raced off early speed, shaken up seven wide top stretch, showed response, gained position but needed more for serious impact. CODE WARRIOR lacked racing room along outside then angled to rail, raced off top two flights then made good move along rail entering lane, raced in contention then flattened late. WEALTHY SHIPMAN got brushed just after the start then lacked early speed, hustled up two wide at head of the lane then moved out wider and had mild improve. SYLPHIDE raced wide off early speed leaving the backstretch, continued bid racing widest at head of the lane, lacked needed rally for impact. BRANDY'S GIRL got pushed out path and steadied at the start, hustled up along outside then got carried out wide entering top stretch, failed to move on. BLUE BAHIA angled in from outside position just after the start, applied pressure to GIRLS KNOW BEST through early stages, began to inch up on equal terms leaving the turn then rival took back slim lead, went to move back up but took bad step, stumbled, abruptly taken up then walked off after the race. GO KART (IRE) brushed just after the start, lacked early speed and failed to rally in the lane. COUSIN CLAIRE got bumped just after the start then raced in back without reaching close range.
