Chestnut Horse, (), by Pure Prize - Historia (ARG) by French Deputy. Trainer Todd A. Pletcher. Bred by La Providencia (ARG).

HI HAPPY (ARG) broke readily briefly matching strides for lead in initial sixteenth before reining back to race behind ONE GO ALL GO, continued well rated behind pacesetter then applied pressure to rival running through backstretch final time, dueled for lead racing outside of ONE GO ALL GO in final turn then got by rival under strong handling, cleared on top a furlong out, remained sharp and clear. ONE GO ALL GO broke on top then briefly matched strides with eventual winner before clearing on top, raced with head up wanting to do more while trying to slow pace down in early stages, settled more continued lead way, raced under pressure from HI HAPPY final run through backstretch then dueled inside of rival entering lane, could not match strides but angled out path and continued with response, game effort. CLASSIC COVEY raced under snug hold being rated wanting to do more, lost some kick midway going through backstretch final time, showed even response in final turn then found kick near inside in lane and secured share. SADLER'S JOY raced in the back then moved up closer five wide in final turn, sent driving racing widest entering the lane and finished with interest improving position. BULLARDS ALLEY stalked through early stages then hustled up for response leaving backstretch for late time, under drive through final turn, continued long sustained run finished evenly. MARKITOFF tugged while rated in early stages, continued under snug hold wanting to do more, settled more with half mile left to run then put to drive three wide entering lane, nothing left in late reserve. BIGGER PICTURE was reserved racing near the back, hustled up for more in final turn and into lane, needed more for late impact. TIZ A SLAM raced evenly without producing needed kick for impact. LITTLE NICK V. tugged in early stages then settled saving ground along rail, could not keep up pace, retreated.
