Bay Colt, (Feb), by Shakespeare - Free Fee Lady by Victory Gallop. Trainer Michael J. Maker. Bred by Dell Ridge Farm, LLC (KY).

KEYSTONEFORVICTORY was allowed to settle in the middle of the pack, swung for home going three wide then set down for the long drive and edged clear late. THE PIZZA MAN sat well rated off the pace, entered the stretch going three wide and took a brief lead midway down the stretch and was all out through the finish. APPLICATOR was allowed to settle off the pace while sitting on the rail, uncorked a late surge but it was not enough. ONE GO ALL GO was rank in the early going but finally settled down on the backstretch while tracking the pace, turned for home going two wide responded well to rider's urging but did not have enough. BELOMOR bumped at the start with MONGOL G but was unfazed, took control of the lead while passing the grandstand the first turn and skipped well clear of the rest of the field, dug in for the drive but grew tired. FLASHY CHELSEY ran towards the rear most of the way, turned for home going four wide while full of run at the quarter pole and proved to be the best of the rest. BODHISATTVA ran towards the rear while staying on the rail and was able to pass a tired rival. MONGOL G bumped at the start with BELOMOR but was unfazed, had the lead before the first call but settled to track the pace most of the way, had no response when asked for more. FEODOR trailed.
